ADVOCACY PARTNERSHIPS THAT EMPOWER PARENTS AND PROMOTE
FARIY DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Naté Dearden Esperanza Reyes

OBJECTIVES

- Collaborative Nature of Utah's Dispute Resolution System
 - o Structure of Informal and Formal Dispute Resolution in Utah
 - o A Brief History
- Informal Dispute Resolution in Action
 - o Parent Advocacy and Empowerment
 - o Diversity
 - Current Data and Trends
- Informing and Strengthening the Quality of Services
 - o LEA-Level Parent Engagement
 - SEA-Level Collaboration

COLLABORATIVE NATURE OF UTAH'S DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEM

UTAH SPECIAL EDUCATION DISPUTE RESOLUTION OPTIONS Due Process Hearing Telephone final Intermediary Telephone final Intermediary

TELEPHONE/EMAIL INTERMEDIARY

- Strategy utilized when parents contact the USBE with concerns about their child's services or questions about dispute resolution options.
- With parent permission, the USBE Dispute Resolution Specialist contacts the LEA's Special Education Director to provide technical assistance.
- Inquiry by parent is viewed as opportunity to clarify the issue, identify informal ways of addressing the matter, leading to resolution in many instances.

PARENT ADVOCATE

- Encourages and helps parents in navigating and resolving disputes
- Facilitates communication with IEP team
- Provides confidential consultations to gain understanding of parents concerns
- Helps parents learn and develop advocacy skills
- Attends school meetings related to concerns with parents, including IEP meetings
- Contracts with several independent contractors and the Utah Parent Center

IEP FACILITATOR

- Neutral
- · Not an IEP team member
- Knowledgeable and experienced with the IEP process
- · Participates only when invited by both parties
- Ensures that the meeting is student-focused
- Does not make decisions or tell the IEP team how to solve issues.
- · Does not provide legal advice
- Contracts with several independent contractors (mediators, seasoned administrators, attorneys)

Volunteer IEP Coaches Parent Advocates (USBE contract)

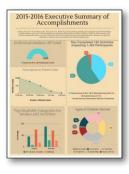

HISTORY OF DISTRICT "PARENT CONSULTANT" MODEL

- Granite School District (2005)
 - Special education climate in the LEA
 - Special funding opportunity
- Early Adopters and LEA Communication
 - Salt Lake School District
 - Davis School District
- Utah Parent Center (UPC) Presence at Special Education Directors' Meeting
 - Natural forum for discussion

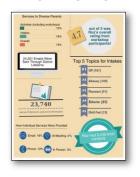

SAMPLE ANNUAL DISTRICT REPORT

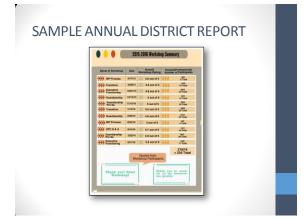

SAMPLE ANNUAL DISTRICT REPORT

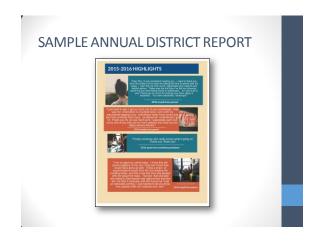

SAMPLE ANNUAL DISTRICT REPORT

SAMPLE ANNUAL DISTRICT REPORT 2015-2016 School Meeting Data The Annual As Basin of Basin of

INFORMAL DISPUTE	RESOLUTION	IN ACTION

PARENT ADVOCATE BROCHURE

PARENT ADVOCACY AND EMPOWERMENT

- In-depth explanation of IEP Process
 - Providing written materials
 - Providing video modules
- Explanation of Dispute Resolution Options
 - Parent brochures and CADRE graphic
 - Importance of using the chain of command
- Document Review
 - Meeting preparation
 - Formulating ideas and questions

PARENT ADVOCACY AND EMPOWERMENT
A Special Note About Communication Strategies

Making requests in writing
De constitue terror de disiene
Documenting team decisions
Keeping mutual respect going
Learning special education jargon
Preparing for meetings
Preparing for meetings

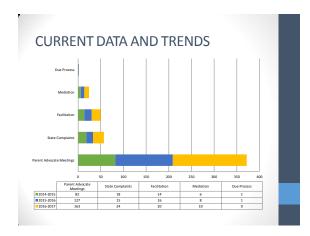

DIVERSITY IN THE LEA

- Example: Refugee Parent from Syria
 - Refugee needs
 - Coordinating multiple services (refugee services, special education services, social services)
 - Barriers in miscommunication
 - $\,\circ\,$ Translator spoke the wrong dialect of Arabic
 - Questions and concerns
- Example: Parent with Limited English Proficiency
 - Barriers in miscommunication
 - o No interpreting services were provided
 - o Parent was treated with disrespect (assumptions about ability)
 - o Procedural Safeguards not being followed
 - o Parent needed advocacy at the LEA Level
 - Suggested cultural competency training to staff and IEP was rewritten

DIVERSITY IN THE LEA

- Example- Pattern of Need for Interpreters
 - Unique role presented unique opportunity (system-level changes)
 - Shared the issue- Met with the Special Education Coordinator
 - Make suggestions for action

LEA-LEVEL PARENT ENGAGEMENT

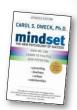

- Parent Liaisons
 - District Level Meetings (Co-sponsored and presented by the LEA and Parent Consultant)
 - o Advocacy at the local level
 - o Upcoming events
 - o Training opportunities
 - o Learn the chain of command
 - o Updates on relevant special education information
 - Encouraged to meet with the principal and create a dissemination Plan
 - School representative (Granite SD)
 - Regional volunteers (Canyons SD)

LEA-LEVEL PARENT ENGAGEMENT

- Participation on committees
 - All District Consultants serve on LEA Committees
 - o Parent Rep. on Committees
 - o LRBI/Human Rights Committee
 - o Section 504
 - o UPIPS Recommendation Teams at LEA Level
 - o MTSS Committees
 - o Initiatives for improvement
 - o Disability-specific committees

STATE-LEVEL COLLABORATION

- State Systemic Improvement Plan (SSIP) Activities
 - Book Study Carol Dweck's "Mindset"
- Multiple Agency Committees, especially around transition
 - State Transition Action Guide
- Multiple staff on Utah Special Education Advisory Panel (USEAP)

STATE-LEVEL COLLABORATION

- Indicator 8 Parent Survey Revisions
- · Utah's State Personnel Development Grant (SPDG)
- Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (UMTSS)
- Meeting Attendance
- Joint Trainings
- Developed Materials Together
- Provide Ongoing Data and Input on Parent Concerns Statewide

TAKEAWAYS

- Seek opportunities to make an impact at the local level in addition to larger systems-level work
- Be proactive in building informal dispute resolution options
- Invest in early parent engagement opportunities to reap the benefits of established relationships
- Establish a working relationship with your local Parent Training Information Center (PTI) or Community Parent Resource Center (CPRC) to combine efforts and build synergy

CONTACT INFORMATION

Email: esperanza@utahparentcenter.org

Esperanza Reyes Associate Director, Parent Training and Information Utah Parent Center Phone: 801-272-1051

Naté Dearden Dispute Resolution Specialist Utah State Board of Education Phone: 801-538-7884

Email: nate.dearden@schools.utah.gov